NOTICE to PATIENTS

ACHS receives U.S. Health & Human Services (HHS) funding and has Federal Public Health Services (PHS) deemed status with respect to certain health or health-related claims, including medical malpractice claims, for itself and its covered individuals.

This means employees of ACHS may be immune from law suits, as the Federal government acts as their primary insurer. A patient who alleges acts of medical malpractice by a deemed health center cannot sue the health center or the provider directly but must instead file the claim against the United States government.
